Hi! I'm Kevin, the creator of Smiley's Points – a website for recipes to make you smile!

This guide is for the WW 2020 Purple Plan. I am NOT associated with Weight Watchers, iTrackBites, or Noom in any way, shape, or form.

If you have questions about Weight Watchers or any of their plans, please email me at smileyspoints@gmail.com and I will respond to you as soon as possible.

My blog has tons of recipes for all plans, so if you decide to switch plans, I've got you covered!

On a budget? Check out how to do the Purple Plan for $36 a YEAR using iTrackBites. Yes, the app is accurate and uses the same formula WW does. My wife and I have used iTrackBites for a while now and we love it. One year of the PRO version costs as much as WW does for 2 months, so it's worth looking at if you're pinching pennies like we are!

On the iTrackBites app, the Better Balance Plan is the one that will match up with the Purple Plan, with a hack/tweek.

Purple Plan Tips for Success

Take the assessment.
If you aren't sure which program is right for you, take the assessment in the WW app. If you don't have the WW app, you can look at an overview of each plan and choose the one based on your preferences and dietary needs.

See all plan info here: smileyspoints.com/2020

Stick with it.
WW has given us options - and iTrackBites gives us even MORE options - but it's important to stick with a plan for at least two weeks before jumping ship. I personally recommend sticking with a program for a month or so, to give your body time to see results.

Weekly WW Points
Most members can be successful while eating Weeklies. However, if you're sedentary, not drinking much water, or over 40 years of age, you may find yourself gaining weight on any of the WW plans if you eat your Weeklies. You'll have to switch things up and try a week or two with Weeklies and a week or two without Weeklies to see which works best for your body.

Should I eat my Weeklies? Find out here!
Purple Plan Tips for Success

Zero Points does not equal zero calories (or carbs).

Many WW members choose the Green Plan because they're afraid of having too many zero point foods to eat. At the end of the day, it comes down to being able to control yourself and keep an eye on carbs. If you can do this, the Purple Plan will work!

See a list of 200+ zero point foods with calorie and carb counts here: smileyspoints.com/zero

Build your meals around veggies.

Instead of building your recipes around Zero Point foods like whole grain pasta, build your meals around fruits and/or vegetables. Add in regular-sized portions of proteins and/or meat, and for some recipes, small portions of whole grain foods.

Weekly WW Points

Remember Simply Filling? The Purple Plan is similar, with some foods taken away (like nonfat milk). There's a list of foods you can eat, without tracking, but there are also some points available. Think Freestyle PLUS. The bottom line is KNOW YOUR BODY. I know I can't do the Purple plan because I'll gain weight. I have - HAVE! - to watch my carb intake.
